

JM

Graduate programme

Our Global Graduate Programme is a structured leadership development programme supporting JM's businesses in the core capability areas of commercial, operations and science.

Graduates on the program will undergo leadership development while completing high priority business projects.

Registration is open until

6th August 2023

Are YOU the ideal candidate?

For more information, scan the QR code.

The Benefits of the program

- Valuable firsthand mentorship from our team of experts & working on real projects
- Working in international company, with over 13.450 employees over the world
- Competitive compensation
- Gaining experience & personal growth